This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. INDEX OF PERSONS AND PLACES.*

*"Places" includes "Temple"

PREFACE.

THE fourth volume of the Minutes of the Parliament of the Middle Temple consists of an Index of the persons and places mentioned in the three preceding volumes.

The successive Under-Treasurers or clerks who kept the Minutes had very different ideas about spelling, and the names of members of the same family, or even the name of the same man, occur in many various forms, which are retained in the body of the work.

In the Index, the names of persons will generally be found under the usual modern form, with cross-references from varieties which present any difficulty.

Much trouble has been taken in attempting to assign references to contemporaries of the same name to the right person. The difficulty encountered in doing this was very great, and in many cases insuperable. Members of the Inn are constantly mentioned by their surname only, and sometimes with the addition of "senior" and "junior," or "primus" and "secundus," referring to the date of their admission; or, perhaps more frequently, the senior is merely called by his name, and the epithet "junior" or "secundus" alone is used. With one or two rather ordinary names, there is sometimes even a "tertius." In such cases, when these distinctions cease, it is often impossible to decide whether the reason is that the junior has died or left the Inn, or that this fate has happened to the senior, so that the epithet "junior" is no longer required to mark its former possessor; and there is nothing to indicate to which of the two, succeeding mentions refer.

It is necessary, therefore, to warn those who use the book that they must not take it for granted that all the numbers attached to one name refer to the same person.

In regard to places, the spelling of the manuscripts has been adhered to in the preceding volumes, but in the Index places are, as a rule, inserted under their modern form. Where the identification of the place is doubtful, the original spelling has been preserved in the Index.

In conclusion, I wish to express my deep regret that my friend Mr. C. H. Hopwood has not been allowed to see the completion of the work, which was due to his initiative, and in which he took so much interest.
